Temporary Worker (including, for the avoidance of doubt, where the Temporary Worker undertakes an Assignment without having signed these terms). No contract shall exist between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker between Assignments.

2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, this agreement constitutes a contract for services and not a contract of employment between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker or the Temporary Worker and the Client.

2.3 For the purposes of the Conduct Regulations 2003, the Employment Business acts as an Employment Business in relation to the Introduction and supply of the Temporary Worker to the Client.

3. Assignments

3.1 The Employment Business will endeavour to obtain suitable Assignments for the Temporary Worker to perform the type of work specified in the Assignment Confirmation. The Employment Business is not obliged to offer an Assignment to the Temporary Worker and the Temporary Worker shall not be obliged to accept any Assignment offered by the Employment Business.

3.2 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available. The Temporary Worker agrees that suitability of an Assignment shall be determined solely by the Employment Business and that the Employment Business shall incur no liability to the Temporary Worker should it fail to offer Assignments of the type of work specified in the Assignment Confirmation or any other work.

3.3 Except as provided below, at the same time as an Assignment is offered to the Temporary Worker, the Employment Business shall provide the Temporary Worker with the following information (the Assignment Confirmation):

- (a) the identity of the Client, and if applicable the nature of its business;
- (b) the date the Assignment is to commence and the duration or likely duration of the Assignment;
- (c) the position which the Client seeks to fill, including the type of work the Temporary Worker in that position would be required to do, the location at which, and the hours during which, the Temporary Worker would be required to work;
- (d) the Rate of Pay and any expenses payable by or to the Temporary Worker;
- (e) any risks to health and safety known to the Client in relation to the Assignment and the steps the Client has taken to prevent or control such risks; and
- (f) the experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation which the Client considers are necessary or which are required by law or a professional body for the Temporary Worker to possess in order to work in the Assignment.

3.4 Where the Assignment Confirmation is not given in paper form or by electronic means, the Employment Business shall confirm it in writing or electronically as soon as possible and in any event will endeavour to confirm no later than the end of the third Business Day following the day on which the Assignment was offered to the Temporary Worker.

3.5 Unless the Temporary Worker requests otherwise, clause 3.3 will not apply where the Temporary Worker is being Introduced or supplied to the Client to work in the same position as one in which the Temporary Worker has previously been supplied within the previous five Business Days and the Assignment Confirmation (with the exception of the date or likely duration of the Assignment) is the same as that already given to the Temporary Worker.

3.6 Subject to clause 3.5 and clause 3.7, where the Assignment is intended to last for five consecutive Business Days or less and the Assignment Confirmation has previously been given to the Temporary Worker and remains unchanged, the Employment Business shall provide written confirmation of the identity of the Client and the likely duration of the Assignment.

3.7 Where the provisions of clause 3.6 have been met but the Assignment extends beyond the intended five consecutive Business Day period, the Employment Business shall provide the remaining Assignment Confirmation to the Temporary Worker in paper or electronic form within eight Business Days of the start of the Assignment or by the end of the Assignment, if sooner.

4. Temporary Worker's Obligations

4.1 The Temporary Worker is not obliged to accept any Assignment offered by the Employment Business. If the Temporary Worker does accept an Assignment, the Temporary Worker shall:

- (a) co-operate with the Client's reasonable instructions and accept the direction, supervision and control of any responsible person in the Client's organisation;
- (b) observe any relevant rules and regulations of the Client's organisation (including normal hours of work) of which the Temporary Worker has been informed or of which the Temporary Worker should be reasonably aware;
- (c) co-operate with the Employment Business in the completion and renewal of all mandatory checks;
- (d) where the Assignment involves working with any Vulnerable Persons, provide the Employment Business with copies of any relevant qualifications or authorisations including an up-to-date Disclosure and Barring Service certificate and two references which are from persons who are not related to the Temporary Worker;
- (e) take all reasonable steps to safeguard their own health and safety and that of any other person who may be present or be affected by their actions on the Assignment and comply with the health and safety policies of the Client;
- (f) not engage in any conduct detrimental to the interests of the Employment Business or the Client;
- (g) comply with all relevant statutes, laws, regulations and codes of practice from time to time in force in the performance of the Assignment and applicable to the Client's business, including without limitation, any equal opportunities or non-harassment policies.

4.2 If the Temporary Worker accepts any Assignment offered by the Employment Business, as soon as possible before the commencement of each such Assignment and during each Assignment (as appropriate) and at any time at the Employment Business' request, the Temporary Worker undertakes to:

- (a) inform the Employment Business in writing or electronically of any Calendar Weeks whether before the date of commencement of the relevant Assignment or during the relevant Assignment in which the Temporary Worker has worked in the same or a similar role with the Client, direct or via any third party;
- (b) provide the Employment Business in writing or electronically with all the details of such work, including (without limitation) details of when, where and the period(s) during which such work was undertaken, the role performed and any other details requested by the Employment Business; and
- (c) inform the Employment Business in writing or electronically if before the date of the commencement of the relevant Assignment the Temporary Worker has:

- (i) completed two or more assignments with the Client;
- (ii) completed at least one assignment with the Client and one or more assignments with a member of the Client's Group; or
- (iii) worked in more than two roles during an assignment with the Client and on at least two occasions has worked in a role that was not the same role as the previous role.

4.3 If the Temporary Worker is unable for any reason to attend work during the course of an Assignment, they should first inform the Employment Business at least twenty four hours before their normal start time (to enable alternative arrangements to be made). If this is not possible, the Temporary Worker should inform the Employment Business as soon as possible.

4.4 If, either before or during the course of an Assignment, the Temporary Worker becomes aware of any reason why they may not be suitable for an Assignment, they shall notify the Employment Business without delay.

5. Remuneration

5.1 Subject to the Temporary Worker submitting properly authorised time sheets in accordance with clause 6, the Employment Business shall pay the Rate of Pay to the Temporary Worker. The Rate of Pay will be set out in the relevant Assignment Confirmation for a particular Assignment.

5.2 Where the Relevant Terms and Conditions contain a performance-related bonus for which the Temporary Worker may be eligible, the Temporary Worker will comply with any requirements of the Employment Business or the Client relating to the assessment of the Temporary Worker's performance for the purpose of determining entitlement to such bonus and the amount of any such bonus. If the Temporary Worker satisfies the relevant assessment criteria, the Employment Business will pay the Temporary Worker the bonus less any deductions that the employment business is required to make by law at the relevant time.

5.3 Subject to any applicable statutory entitlement and to clause 7 and clause 8, the Temporary Worker is not entitled to receive payment from the Employment Business or the Client for time not spent working on the Assignment, whether in respect of holidays, illness or absence for any other reason, unless otherwise agreed.

6. Time Sheets

6.1 At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of an Assignment if it is for a period of one week or less or is completed before the end of a week) the Temporary Worker shall deliver electronically or hardcopies in person to the Employment Business a completed time sheet indicating the number of hours worked during the preceding week (or such lesser period) and signed by an authorised representative of the Client.

6.2 Subject to clause 6.3, the Employment Business shall endeavour to pay the Temporary Worker for all hours worked on a weekly basis, but will pay no later than on a fortnightly basis regardless of whether the Employment Business has received payment from the Client for those hours.

6.3 Where the Temporary Worker fails to submit a properly authorised time sheet, any payment due to the Temporary Worker may be delayed while the Employment Business investigates (in a timely fashion) what hours, if any, were worked by the Temporary Worker. The Employment Business shall make no payment to the Temporary Worker for hours not worked.

6.4 The Temporary Worker acknowledges and accepts that it could be a criminal offence under the Fraud Act 2006 to falsify any time sheet, for example by claiming payment for hours that were not actually worked.

7. Annual Leave

7.1 All entitlement to annual leave must be taken during the course of the holiday year in which it accrues and no untaken holiday can be carried forward to the next holiday year.

7.2 The Temporary Worker should give at least two weeks' notice of any proposed holiday dates and these must be agreed by the Recruitment Manager in writing in advance. No more than 11 days' holiday may be taken at any one time unless prior consent is obtained from the Recruitment Manager. The Employment Business may require the Temporary Worker to take holiday on specific days, as notified to the Temporary Worker.

7.3 At the end of the Assignment the Temporary Worker shall be entitled to be paid in lieu of accrued but untaken holiday for the holiday year in which termination takes place.

7.4 If the Temporary Worker has taken more holiday than their accrued entitlement at the end of the Assignment, the Employment Business shall be entitled to deduct the appropriate amount from any payments due to the Temporary Worker.

8. Sickness Absence

8.1 If the Temporary Worker is absent from work for any reason, they must notify the Recruitment Manager of the reason for their absence as soon as possible but no later than 2 hours before the assignment is due to begin.

8.2 If the Temporary Worker satisfies the qualifying conditions laid down by law, they may be entitled to receive Statutory Sick Pay (SSP) at the prevailing rate in respect of any period of sickness or injury during the Assignment. The Temporary Worker will not be entitled to any other payments during such period.

8.3 In all cases of absence, a self-certification form, which is available from the Recruitment Manager, must be completed on the Temporary Worker's return to work and supplied to the Recruitment Manager.

For any period of incapacity due to sickness or injury which lasts for seven consecutive days or more, a doctor's certificate (a "statement of fitness for work") stating the reason for absence must be obtained at the Temporary Worker's own cost and supplied to the Recruitment Manager. Further certificates must be obtained if the absence continues for longer than the period of the original certificate. If the Temporary Worker is certified as "fit for work" the Employment Business, the Temporary Worker and the Client will discuss any additional measures that may be needed to facilitate the Temporary Worker's return to work. If appropriate measures cannot be taken, the Temporary Worker will remain on sick leave and the Employment Business will set a date to review the situation.

8.4 The Temporary Worker's qualifying days for SSP purposes are Sunday to Saturday.

9. Termination

9.1 The Employment Business or the Client may terminate the Assignment at any time without prior notice or liability.

9.2 The Temporary Worker will provide a minimum of 24 hours' notice should they wish to terminate the Assignment without prior notice or liability.

9.3 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the continuation of an Assignment is subject to and dependent on the continuation of the agreement entered into between the Employment Business and the Client. If that agreement is terminated for any reason, the Assignment shall cease with immediate effect without liability to the Temporary Worker, except for payment for work done up to the date of termination of the Assignment.

9.4 Unless exceptional circumstances apply, the Temporary Worker's failure to inform the Client or the Employment Business of their inability to attend work as required by clause 4.3 will be treated as termination of the Assignment by the Temporary Worker.

9.5 If the Temporary Worker is absent during the course of an Assignment and the Assignment has not otherwise been terminated, the Employment Business will be entitled to terminate the Assignment in accordance with clause 9.1 if the work to which the Temporary Worker was assigned is no longer available.

10. Intellectual Property Rights The Temporary Worker acknowledges that all Intellectual Property Rights deriving from services carried out by the Temporary Worker for the Client during the Assignment shall belong to the Client. Accordingly, the Temporary Worker shall execute all such documents and do all such acts as the Employment Business shall from time to time require in order to give effect to the Client's rights pursuant to this clause.

11. Confidentiality

11.1 In order to protect the confidentiality and trade secrets of the Employment Business and the Client, the Temporary Worker agrees not at any time:

11.1(a) whether during or after an Assignment (unless expressly so authorised by the Client or the Employment Business as a necessary part of the performance of their duties), to disclose to any person or to make use of any of the trade secrets or the Confidential Information of the Client or the Employment Business; or

11.1(b) to make any copy, abstract or summary of the whole or any part of any document or other material belonging to the Client or the Employment Business except when required to do so in the course of the Temporary Worker's duties under an Assignment, in which circumstances such copy abstract or summary would belong to the Client or the Employment Business, as appropriate.

11.2 The restriction in clause 11.1 does not apply to:

11.2(c) the making of a protected disclosure within the meaning of section 43A of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

11.3 At the end of each Assignment or on request the Temporary Worker agrees to deliver up to the Client or the Employment Business (as directed) all documents (including copies), ID cards, swipe cards, equipment, passwords, pass codes and other materials belonging to the Client which are in its possession, including any data produced, maintained or stored on the Client's computer systems or other electronic equipment.

12. Data Protection

12.1 The Temporary Worker consents to the Employment Business and the Client [and any other intermediary involved in supplying the services of the Temporary Worker to the Client] holding and processing data relating to them for legal, personnel, administrative and management purposes and in particular to the processing of any "sensitive personal data" as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998 relating to them including, as appropriate:

12.3 The Temporary Worker consents to the transfer of such information outside the European Economic Area for purposes connected with the performance of this agreement.

13.2 (a) any failure by the Temporary Worker to comply with its obligations under this agreement;
